

FLORIDA FANTASY

Your favourite comping magazine has a new look this month, but some things haven't changed – like the non-stop flood of entries in our exclusive Golden Ticket Bingo game!

Never mind Mrs Brown's Boys, here are Ms Brown's Girls – Angie Reynolds and her daughter Katie, in fact! Last year, Angie was lucky enough to win a trip to Florida to meet Ms Brown with M&M's – a prize draw that we featured in Compers News and on Chatterbox. "We took Katie for her 13th Birthday last October and didn't tell her until she blew the candles out on her cake," Angie told us. "She couldn't believe it when we put her in the car and drove straight to the airport, it was a wonderful surprise!"

Angie wins a Spot Prize of a £10 shopping voucher – plus a Bonus Prize for including Compers News in her winning photo – and her entry will also go into the main category draw for one of our top prizes – remember, we've got very special Golden Tickets to be won for an exclusive Comping Day in London!

With so many Golden Ticket Bingo entries still flooding in, we're once again printing a bumper selection of lucky winning entries inside this month's issue. And if all that wasn't enough, we announce our next lucky Golden Ticket winner too. Is it you?

Compers News is the UK's only magazine dedicated to competitions and prize draws.

Welcome to your new look Compers News

First of all this month, I'd like to wish everyone a Happy Easter. It only seems like yesterday that I was busy putting the Christmas issue together, but spring has now well and truly sprung and the (slightly!) warmer weather and lighter evenings mean that the thoughts of many people turn to DIY, gardening and days out. Which is great for us compers, as it means that entry numbers start to go down over the spring and summer months. So make sure that you take full advantage, and keep your own entries up.

As promised in the last issue, this month's Compers News has a new look. We've adjusted our content to give priority to those features that scored best in our recent reader survey – which told us loud and clear that the listings and in-house puzzles are by far the main priority for the vast majority of you as compers in 2016. We have also tweaked our font colours, styles and sizes to ensure that everything is clearer and easier to read. But the most obvious change is the size of the magazine. Our new compact format will make it easier to carry your Compers News around with you but, most importantly, costs less for us to post out each month – especially with yet another increase in the price of stamps due very soon. This, in turn, makes the future of our printed magazine even more secure – which was, overwhelmingly, your biggest concern in our survey.

Although we've made most of the planned size and style changes this month, we'll be introducing our new-look content rather more gradually over the next few issues as current series and features reach their conclusions.

I do appreciate, of course, that not all of the changes will be welcomed by everyone. Favourite formats and features may alter or could even disappear completely. But please give my message in the last issue another read for a more detailed explanation. At the end of the day, it's a VERY challenging environment for newspapers and magazines generally at the moment – best illustrated by our last remaining competitor magazine ceasing publication at the end of last year. Compers News will hopefully be here for a good while longer yet, but it's important that we take steps now to secure the printed magazine's future.

Every single one of the changes we've made – even the potentially unpopular ones – have been informed by your survey replies, because the views of our readers are very important to us. I've set up a special thread on Chatterbox to explain the changes in more detail, and to give you the opportunity to comment on them. You can find the thread at www.tinyurl.com/NewLookCN – but please remember that this link will only work if you're a registered Chatterbox user.

Good luck with your April entries, and see you again next month.

With classic comping titles including Competitors' Journal, Competitor's Companion and Prize Draw Winner having joined us along the way, we can trace our comping heritage back to 1913. It's an unrivalled history of which we're justifiably proud.

Not So Super...

A bit of a mixed bag of problems this month, so let's start off with the biggest. Supermalt is a Caribbean soft drink sold in major supermarkets. They recently ran a big on-pack promotion, Supermalt Superwin, with lots of lovely prizes. Two Chatterbox members contacted me at almost the same time. They had both made several purchases and had accumulated Thomas Cook voucher wins of many hundreds of pounds. However, when the vouchers had arrived they were not real gift vouchers, but discount vouchers with lots of restrictions. This was not set out in the terms and conditions and both members were obviously very upset and disappointed. They both went on to refer the case to the Advertising Standards Authority.

This was the ASA response:

"I understand that you won Thomas Cook vouchers, but when you received the vouchers, you learned

INSTANTLY WIN 1000'S OF PRIZES WITH that they were for discounts and significant terms and conditions applied, such as a maximum of £100 off per holiday.

We think you have a valid point and, with a view to acting quickly, we'll instruct the advertiser to change their ad. We'll ask them to make clear on the prizes page that terms and conditions apply to the vouchers, and to provide a link to the terms and conditions. We will then get an assurance from them that they will make those changes."

After the ruling, the terms and conditions were indeed updated and Supermalt contacted both complainants to offer a goodwill gesture. They were offered "real" Thomas Cook vouchers and an additional prize, with a total value of about half their original win. They both asked my opinion and I contacted Mr Mutton, formerly of the IPM. His advice was to accept their offer, as they were under no obligation to offer anything at all. So, both winners came out with something eventually, but it wasn't a pleasant experience. This competition was administered by one of the major handling houses, and you have to question why they wrote such shoddy terms and conditions? Surely they had enough experience to know that they were misleading people and could have anticipated the eventual outcome. I would like to commend both winners for sticking with this and going to the ASA. I am very pleased that they both got something for all their trouble. →

→ The next two problems this month are old favourites - family holiday prizes that cannot be taken in school holidays. Chatterbox member Mrs H heard about a competition on the radio which was running over several local stations. Listeners had to text in to win one of several holidays, and here is an example of the prizes available taken from their terms and conditions:-

The holiday is for a family of four (2 adults + 2 children) flying with Thomas Cook Airlines to Lanzarote for 7 nights between 12-30 April or 01-21 May 2016.

These dates are very specific and manage to exclude both Easter and spring half term. There was a contact helpfully listed in the terms and conditions so I emailed him and explained about the numerous ASA rulings about this issue. Although there has been a lot of press lately about the legality of whether you can or cannot take a child out of school in term time, I still believe that a good promoter would not want to encourage a parent to do this. I received a reply saying that he would look into it, however by this time the competition had closed. The next day I received a call from the Communications Director at Bauer Media. She sounded quite nervous, and was concerned about what I was going to do. She told me that winners had been chosen and that one of them did indeed have school age children, and they had been offered, and had accepted, a break which they could take in school holidays. She went on to say that they would not repeat this mistake in the future, and all members of the promotions team had been briefed to ensure this would not happen again in future competitions.

The next holiday problem was sent to me by Mrs W and featured on the website of the National Geographic Traveller Magazine. The prize was a lovely family skiing holiday to Val d'Isère for four people. Again, unfortunately, the competition had just closed. The terms and conditions stated:-

The prize is valid from 1 December 2016 until 1 April 2017 (excluding Christmas, New Year and February half term) and must be booked at least three weeks in advance. The prize is non-exchangeable, non-transferable and non-refundable. There's no cash alternative and no alternative holidays will be offered.

This time I emailed the editor, pointing out the issues yet again. I received a prompt reply from the Editorial Director:

Thank you for bringing this to our attention. We were genuinely not aware of this when we ran this competition, and since then the competition has now run its course. However going forward we will be aware of the ASA findings and change our rules to ensure we abide by them. In future, our team will inform competition partners that anything that is aimed at a family must not exclude all school holidays and we are bound by the ASA for this. Thank you again for bringing this to our attention.

Another old favourite problem next - the instant win that goes wrong. The current Vita Coco 'Take a Sip and Win a Trip' competition features neck collars with a unique code to enter online. Within two →

CASE STUDY

Riddle me this

Reader Mrs G spotted a competition on the Facebook page of Efex computers. The prize was a lovely laptop, but they had made it very difficult to win! They had set a complicated riddle which had taken Mrs G a long time to solve. Efex were a bit vague with the closing date, eventually settling on 10th December so that they could send the laptop out to the winner in time for Christmas.

The festive season came and went, but there was no activity on their Facebook page, let alone a winner announcement. I posted on their page that I would be making an ASA referral but this too was ignored, not very impressive for a computer company! During the second week of January I started calling them and after being passed around the company, I eventually found the problem.

The person in charge of updating their Facebook page and who was running the competition had been off sick since before Christmas. He eventually returned to work on 20th January and finally announced the winner and also mentioned that there were only 25 correct entries! Unfortunately, the winner was not Mrs G on this occasion, but I am glad that someone eventually got their laptop!

→ days of the promotion going live, seven Chatterbox members had reported a win. However, this seemed too many, as although the terms said that there were 25 instant win prizes available to be won each day, the instant win window was only five seconds long for each prize making it unlikely that many prizes would actually be claimed. In fact, only one prize was guaranteed to be won every day, with one winning window staying open until the next person entered and won.

Within a week, the 'error' email had arrived:

Thanks for trying to enter into our Take a Sip Win a Trip competition last week. We're really sorry but we had a technical error that meant your entry was rejected and we sent you an incorrect message saying that you had won one of our mini-escapes.

We're really sorry for our error and we would like to make it up to you with a Vita Coco gift box worth over £10, which we'll be sending straight to your door using the postal address you used when trying to enter.

Fortunately, we've been able to fix the problem and your original code is still valid so please revisit our page and re-enter for your chance to win a trip to your own island retreat. Again, we're sorry for our mistake and hope you enjoy your Vita Coco goodies, which will be on their way soon.

What do they mean - "trying to enter our competition"? They hadn't "tried" to enter - they had entered and got a winning screen! Also "fortunately, we have been able to fix the problem" - that is very fortunate considering you have printed thousands of neck collars and have supposedly got lots of lovely prizes to give away!

Shortly after this I received an email from a reader who is not a Chatterbox user, but who had entered, won and received the same "error" email. He did not think that a £10 gift box was really acceptable compensation when he had told his friends and family that he had won a mini break. He decided to email them again to see what they would say. This was their response:

Thank you for your email. We understand your frustrations and take your concerns seriously. We are truly sorry for the technical error where you received an incomplete win message. All valid winners are informed of the exact prize they have won when they are told they are a winner.

We have contacted you as soon as the error was identified, investigated and we were able to offer you the gesture of good will. We are again sorry for the mistake and your disappointment. We would love to send you the gift box containing a range of Vita Coco as our apology for the error.

So, they're obviously not going to be moved from this gesture. I wasn't confident of a better outcome because of the clause they had put in their terms and conditions:

The Promoter reserves the right to cancel, amend, terminate or temporarily suspend this promotion in the event of any unforeseen circumstances or technical reason outside its reasonable control, but will make reasonable efforts to minimise the effect of this.

This is a common term these days, and is virtually a get-out clause. I just don't understand why so many promotions go wrong in the first few days, and it's becoming an increasingly common problem. Doesn't anyone bother to actually check these competitions before they go live? ■

Contact the Comping Crusader

You can contact me in the following ways:

Post: Comping Crusader, Compers News, PO Box 8763, Nottingham NG2 9BS

Email: compingcrusader@compersnews.com

Chatterbox: There is a dedicated Comping Crusader forum on our Chatterbox message board, which I suggest you use if you have an urgent problem as other Compers News members may also be able to help.

I will respond to as many queries as possible on both this page and via the Chatterbox forum, but please note that personal replies cannot be guaranteed due to the quantity of correspondence received.

As your Comping Crusader I will endeavour to provide the relevant assistance, but it is VERY IMPORTANT to note that support and assistance can ONLY be provided after you have made appropriate efforts to contact the Brand / Promoter yourself.

Not sure how to do this? Then by all means contact me for general help and advice about contacting promoters.

Not sure whether it's a general problem affecting other Compers News members? If you think that a comp may have been "forgotten" by a promoter, then please use the Comping Crusader forum on Chatterbox as a first step. If, from any responses on that forum, it becomes clear that there is a serious problem in general with a particular comp, I will consider whether I can launch a general group investigation.

If you have an issue that you want me to investigate, in order to do so effectively you will need to provide me with as much of the following information as possible:

Your details: Basic contact details.

Promotion: Full details of the competition, promoter and prizes involved.

Type of complaint: e.g. Winners List, Terms & Conditions Query, Missing Prize etc.

Description of issue: An outline of your query, giving as much background information as possible.

Action taken to date: Please tell me what contact you have already had with the brand, promoter etc. to attempt to solve the problem and resolve the issue.

Additional supporting documentation: Please supply original competition details if you still have them (e.g. entry form, magazine page, promotional pack etc.) including Terms & Conditions, any contact details you have established, copies of any previous correspondence etc.

Permission for me to act on your behalf: When you contact me, you are confirming that you are happy for me to act on your behalf and that you accept the general Compers News terms and conditions at www.compersnews.com/terms. You also accept that, by asking for my help, I may use your case study on this page or elsewhere (although your full name will never be included).

GOLDEN TICKET BINGO!

Eyes down, look in... join in our EXCLUSIVE new game for 2016 with lots of great prizes to be won!

What You Could Win

Eight Golden Tickets!

Our EIGHT main Golden Ticket Bingo winners – each with a guest – will join the Compers News team in London in early 2017 for an exciting comping day packed full of fun and surprises. We'll also throw in some spending money for the winners to use towards travel, accommodation or anything else they like to make their day in London even more memorable!

Ten Shopping Vouchers!

Each of our TEN lucky runners-up will win a £50 Love2shop gift voucher!

Spot Prizes Galore!

Even if you don't win one of our main prizes, we'll be printing a selection of entries in the magazine throughout 2016 and anything we use will win the sender a £10 shopping voucher!

Starring Compers News!

Plus, we've got lots of bonus £5 SHOPPING VOUCHER prizes up for grabs if we print your Golden Ticket Bingo photo and it includes you and a copy of Compers News in the shot, so make sure you remember to squeeze us into your photo(s)!

How To Play

Have YOU ever won any of the prizes shown on your Golden Ticket Bingo card? If so, just send us a photo and cross off that prize on your card. If you've been lucky enough to win more than one of the prizes shown, send us photos for them all and cross them all off... the more photos you send, the better your chances of a prize – and we're giving away special LINE and FULL HOUSE prizes too!

You'll need a copy of the Golden Ticket Bingo four-page pullout from our January 2016 issue for the full game instructions, rules and your Golden Ticket Bingo card. If you don't have this pullout you can download a copy at www.compersnews.com/bingo or send a stamped SAE to: Golden Ticket Bingo Card Request, Compers News, PO Box 8763, Nottingham NG2 9BS and we'll send one to you.

Here's Your Up-To-Date Bingo Card!

Here's the official Golden Ticket Bingo card, with the squares that have been "called" so far crossed out in traditional bingo style. Once a square has been crossed out, it means that the main category prize and winner has already been drawn for that square – but you can still enter your photos for any crossed-out squares to complete your line and/or full house combinations, or to go into the hat for our monthly spot prizes.

REMEMBER!

Remaining squares can be 'called' at ANY time, and once a square has been called it won't be included in any further monthly draws. So, get your entries in as soon as possible... the earlier you enter, the more prizes you could win!

 ANY CD OR DVD	ANY KITCHEN ITEM (large or small, from washing machines to cutlery) 	ANY TICKET, VOUCHER OR CASH PRIZE	ANY BRANDED MERCHANDISE (e.g. T-shirt, tea towel, mug etc.)

Were You Born Lucky?

Win £50 cash in our Birthday Bingo game!

Here's your chance to win a £50 cash prize in our monthly Birthday Bingo game. The aim of the game is to complete a line of numbers to give you the magic total of 100. And if you DO hit the magic 100, you'll go into the draw for this month's £50 cash prize.

We're playing Birthday Bingo alongside our Golden Ticket Bingo game every month, so that EVERYONE can join in the Bingo fun – even if you're not taking part in our main Golden Ticket Bingo game!

Playing our Birthday Bingo game couldn't be simpler. Jot down the date and month of your birthday and then, using any THREE of the five numbers listed, try to add them together to reach the grand total of 100.

For example, if your birthday is on the tenth of November, write down 10 (the day) and 11 (the month), giving you a starting total of 21. You now need a further 79 to reach 100. So, if any three of the numbers printed here add up to 79, you'd have a total of 100.

Please remember, you MUST use EXACTLY THREE of the numbers printed here (no more, no less), and your total MUST be EXACTLY 100. If any combination of three numbers fails to give you exactly 100 then hard luck – but you'll be able to try again with next month's issue.

If you have been lucky enough to hit the magic 100, complete the 'Birthday Bingo' claim section on this month's Prize Puzzles Entry Form on page 17 – or online at www.compersnews.com/competitions

All correct claims will go into a draw, and one winner will be chosen to win £50 cash. Good luck!

THIS MONTH'S LUCKY NUMBERS:

05 17 27 33 40

Please note that you must be a current Compers News subscriber to take part in Birthday Bingo, and the birthday numbers you use must relate to your own birthday. The winner will be asked to provide a copy or scan of evidence of their name and birth date, we will ask that all other personal and sensitive information, serial numbers etc. are removed from the copy document before you send it to us and we undertake to securely destroy it as soon as your claim has been verified, but please do not enter this competition if you are unwilling or unable to provide this. PLEASE DO NOT SEND ANY DOCUMENTS UNTIL SPECIFICALLY REQUESTED TO DO SO.

GOLDEN TICKET BINGO! Spot Prize Special!

We've been so overwhelmed with entries for our Golden Ticket Bingo game that we're printing a bumper selection of Spot Prize winners this month. Each of the lucky winners here will receive a £10 shopping voucher – plus this month's extra Bonus Prize if the photo also features a copy of Compers News!

Our Spot Prize winners have all been drawn completely at random, so you'll notice a wide range of prizes and photos featured. Big and small, old and new, perhaps a little blurred or out of focus too.

Get your Golden Ticket Bingo entries in as soon as possible to give yourself the best possible chance of a monthly Spot Prize! Your photos will be included in EVERY Spot Prize draw right from the date they're received, and don't worry if your photo does appear as a Spot Prize winner... our Spot Prize draw is completely separate from our main monthly category draws so depending on whether or not a category is still waiting to be 'called', your photo could still win one of our top prizes too!

ANGELA MOORE

CATEGORY: ANY BRANDED MERCHANDISE

Back to Basics: FACEBOOK

PART ONE

Joining Facebook

Signing up to Facebook is free and easy - go to www.facebook.com and follow the instructions to set up your personal profile. You will need to give your real name, email address, gender, date of birth and a password - then click Sign up. Check your email inbox or mobile for a confirmation from Facebook, then click the link or input the code to verify your account. Log in, and get started...

Updating Your Profile

If you're using Facebook mainly for comping, it might be best to skip the 'find your friends' step and add friends as you need to. You can add employment, location and interests - but it's optional. Upload a profile photo - it's called Facebook because it's designed for people to see your face! If you don't have one on your device, or don't want to use a real photo, you can create a cartoon photo using a site such as www.planetcreation.co.uk/createpic - it will be emailed to you, and you can save it to your device, then upload to Facebook as your profile photo.

Click Update Info to add or change personal details - make sure you hover to the right (on a computer) or click the small arrow (mobile app) to choose a privacy setting for your details.

If you have a common name, you might want to include a middle name or initial to make your name unique among UK compers - sometimes you might see a post announcing you as a winner, only to discover it's someone with the same name! To add a middle name, go to your settings at www.facebook.com/settings and click General.

Privacy Settings

It's important to understand how privacy settings work on Facebook. Hover your mouse next to a post or photo and you'll see an icon showing who can see that content. On your own content, you can change settings to any of the options shown below.

- Globe - Public (anyone can see your post on Facebook, even if they're not a friend or follower)
- Two silhouettes - Friends only
- One silhouette, one grey silhouette - Friends except Acquaintances
- Padlock - Only Me
- Gear - Custom settings (eg. lists or specific friends)

Under these standard privacy options are your Lists - Facebook's default lists, plus any lists you create yourself. You can change the privacy settings on a post or photo at any time, even after you post. It's recommended to share personal posts, photos and information only with your Friends - or even only to a list of Close Friends.

Friends

Use the Search box at the top of your browser window to search for friends' names or email addresses, then visit their profile and click Add Friend. They will have to accept your request.

It's worth having a few friends on Facebook as for some comps you will be asked to refer friends, tag friends or work as a team! In addition, having friends to look out for your wins is helpful. When you Confirm a friend request they are automatically added to your Friends list – click Friends on their cover photo to assign them to another list such as Acquaintances or Close Friends. Lots of compers create a list specifically for comping friends - click on a friend's profile, then Friends > + New List to do this. As you add or accept new friends, get into the habit of adding them to lists. You can find fellow comping friends on the Chatterbox forum at <http://bit.ly/FBChatterboxers>. If you do add a comp that you don't know very well, message them (on Chatterbox or Facebook) to let them know who you are! To remove a friend, go to a profile, click Friends then Unfriend. If you want to stay friends with someone, but not see their updates - click Following then Unfollow them.

Navigation

On the right of your browser window is your photo (a link to your profile/timeline), Home (link to your news feed), Friend requests, Messages and Notifications - there will be numbered red boxes if you have new requests, messages or notifications. The padlock icon is your privacy settings.

If you use the mobile app, these icons may appear across the top or bottom of the screen. At the far right is a small down arrow - click this to access more options, including Settings (on the mobile app, tap More, and scroll down to Settings).

Notifications

You will receive a Facebook notification if someone tags (mentions) you, posts on your profile page, shares a link with you, invites you to enter a competition or use an app, uploads a photo of you and many more. You can also choose to get notifications from groups you're in, pages you like, or certain friends. The number of notifications can be overwhelming, so at www.facebook.com/settings you can adjust settings for what you receive and how – you might prefer to turn off email notifications apart from essential ones.

WHAT YOU'LL RECEIVE

- ☐ All notifications, except the ones you unsubscribe from
- ☐ Important notifications about you or activity you've missed
- ☒ Only notifications about your account, security and privacy

Home

Your Home Feed shows posts from your friends and the people/pages you follow, as well as promoted posts (adverts). The Ticker on the right of your Home page is a News Feed that updates in real time - but only some users have it (make your browser window as wide as you can to see if a ticker appears!). Click or hover over stories that interest you to see more. This can be a good way to spot competitions that friends are entering, and pages they're liking.

Messages

Messages on Facebook are private between you and the recipient(s). To send one, click the Message button on a profile or page or on the Messages icon on your top navigation and choose New Message. Not all pages allow messages to be sent to them. Messages from friends will go to your main inbox, but you also have Message Requests and (under the More heading) Filtered messages (previously known as 'Other') - check these regularly at www.facebook.com/messages.

A winning message could come from a company, or a personal profile (usually one of the page's admin accounts). If you use a mobile device, install the free Messenger app to access your Facebook messages. To check all your messages using the app, tap Settings > People > Message requests > See filtered requests.

Comping Comedies

Pam Says:

It's great to see so many new faces on Chatterbox, the Compers News online message board. It's also lovely to see some 'old' faces and friends returning to the fold and getting in touch again. I think comping is the sort of hobby you can so easily pick up again even after a very long break but personally I could never imagine letting it take a back seat or abandoning it in the first place. I can quite see why people might no longer have room for it in their lives whether short or long term though, as we all face difficult times when comping will no longer fit in with our needs. Those of us who are, or have been, long-term successful compers will have so many memories to look back on, and our newcomers have much to look forward to. Prizes, however, don't always go to plan so this month Jane and I are sharing some of our experiences. I'm sure many of our long-term compers will be nodding in agreement when I say that some of the things comping has delivered have had us laughing out loud at the time, other things are much funnier with hindsight.

When our girls were younger we found ourselves in San Francisco for the first time on a winning trip. Three days into our week-long stay we had a call from the hotel manager enquiring as to whether we had enjoyed our stay and asking what time we would be checking out. When I replied about 10am on Friday his tone wasn't so friendly, asking us to vacate our room immediately, EEK! I arranged to meet him with the paperwork we had fortunately taken with us and he agreed we could stay while he sorted things out with the PR company in London BUT the offices had already closed for the day due to the time difference. Luckily it was sorted the next morning; the PR company had only booked us in for three days, the hotel had our room available so all was sorted. We laughed about it afterwards and it taught us a valuable lesson, always take your paperwork!

These days we hear less and less of prize presentations, even for the biggies. Publicity clauses can still be found in the small print of many T&Cs so if you're the shy retiring type then always check that you would be prepared for this should you be the lucky winner. My experience of this, which some would have hated, was being presented with vouchers and gifts in the middle of a city shopping centre on a Saturday afternoon in front of all the shoppers, press and my mortified family who stood well back! Being draped in an American flag and made to wear a silly hat didn't bother me at all, I thought it was hugely funny and well worthwhile given the generosity of the promoters. My family's smiles returned once we went into the first shop to start the voucher spending spree!

My most embarrassing comping moment came, many, many years ago as a result of a raffle win by my dad. He'd won a pair of tickets to a Leo Sayer concert at a large local venue and at the last minute couldn't attend, so he rang me offering the tickets. We were going away the next day so, with all the posh clothes packed, I declined but dad was so disappointed at having to waste the tickets I decided to humour him, especially as he offered to babysit. I went dressed in fairly ordinary clothes despite normally dressing up for the venue and up to the song before the break had been enjoying the evening... then little Leo announced the next number would be 'You Make Me Feel Like Dancing'. As a host of spotlights began to play on the audience he explained he would be looking for a lovely lady to dance with him. One by one the spotlights faded until just one was left focussed on ME! His eyes were like saucers as I approached him. I'm fairly tall anyway but was also wearing boots with three inch heels! "Oooh, don't they make 'em tall round 'ere" he cooed, and proceeded to ask the stage hands for a chair he could stand on to dance with me. The entire place was in uproar as he sang and danced away. I just prayed he wouldn't fall off his chair and was so relieved when the song was over. Of course at the interval it seemed as if about half the people who were there knew me and couldn't wait to come over and chat when all I wanted to do was go home and never hear the name Leo Sayer ever again but, with hindsight, it was one of the funniest things ever to happen to me as a result of a prize.

Prizes don't always go to plan, as Pam and Jane recall in their final Ask the Experts column.

Jane Says:

Nowadays it is easy to take comping a little bit too seriously – we get embroiled in worries about unfair comps, comping cheats, automated entries, how to keep our Facebook and Twitter accounts safe, and it can all get pretty stressful. So it's good from time to time to step back from the stress and remind ourselves that comping is our HOBBY, and that as a hobby, we do it for FUN. Anything we win should be a bonus.

Sometimes you know from the outset that there will be fun involved. Some years ago, I won a weekend in London from the battery firm that advertised with the rabbits that went on, and on, and on. There was an afternoon party involved, and I had also won tickets to a comedy club very near to the party venue, so we decided to combine the two prizes and head on to the club after the party. Of course we didn't know when booking the comedy club tickets that we would win one of the comps at the party – and the prize was a HUGE drumming bunny. When we got to the comedy club, the rest of the audience was around half our age. Stand-up comics tend to pick out members of the audience for a little good-natured ribbing, and what better target than the only middle aged couple in the room, sitting with an enormous pink rabbit wedged between them? You can imagine the kind of "rabbit" jokes that ensued. We were in tears of laughter all through the evening!

Other times the fun and laughter are quite unexpected, like the times when I have been to visit Pam to help out with comping days and have been for a meal out with fellow compers the evening before or after the event – oh my goodness we have had a lot of laughs together (Note to one particular reader: I still have the photo!), when what we were actually expecting was several hours of hard work. (To be fair, we didn't let our hair down until all the hard work was done.) It's something you can really see in the current craze for themed photo and video competitions – the people who have had genuine fun setting up their little scene show it with the laughter in their eyes and their genuine smiles. There's a lot of fun to be had in letting your inner child out to play, and I'm sure those really happy, fun-filled faces stand a better chance of winning. Even if you don't win, you'll have had lots of fun and made moments to remember simply by taking part.

The prizes themselves sometimes make you laugh out loud too. I never dreamed a year's supply of squeeze jam would consist of 144 packs of it (who on earth eats two jars of jam a week?) or of gravy granules would be 52 large jars, so friends and family were kept supplied for the whole year too. And the yard-long Toblerone I won brought a lot of smiles to a lot of faces too! Last year I won a huge stack of very risqué looking novels, which caused much hilarity when I shared photos of the covers on Facebook.

Pam is a dedicated comp for many years standing. She has written regular articles, and has featured as a comping 'Agony Aunt', in a wide range of comping magazines and newsletters.

They turned out to be really good reads, too, which was a bonus.

But the absolute star, the funniest thing I have ever won, was way back when I first started comping online. A box arrived in the post, looking just like a video case, but inside there was a pair of remote controlled vibrating knickers. Yes, really – and in a very charming tiger print nylon too. When I had finished laughing at them, the sticker on the pack set me off again – it proudly declared "New! Improved! Now washable". The mind boggles.

Those knickers have been with me to comping talks and events, and even featured on television, and have made countless people chuckle over them, especially when I've done talks to groups of elderly ladies, all of whom seem to take great delight in passing them round and pressing the control to start the vibrations!

It's goodbye from us for now.

We've loved working together and writing for you, and we are sure to remain firm friends. And through Chatterbox, social media and even in real life, we hope to remain firm friends with all of YOU too.

Prize Tokens Competition WIN £500!

We print a PRIZE TOKEN every month in Compers News. Keep your tokens safe, as you'll need ORIGINAL tokens to enter each draw (no photocopies or digital edition print-outs accepted). You'll also need to answer a question based on the numbers or letters that appear on each token – so make sure you don't lose them!

This is our BIGGEST Prize Tokens pot ever, and you need to collect as many Prize Tokens as you can from our 2016 issues to give you the best chance of winning it! You won't necessarily need every token to enter this time around, but every token you do manage to save will give you a better chance of winning our £500 CASH prize. It MUST be won by one lucky Compers News member, so remember to keep the token here safe and we'll tell you what to do with it in our December issue.

PLAY ROBERTSON'S GOLDEN SHOT

1000 PRIZES MUST BE WON

3 Golden Ford 1600XL Capris
specially commissioned for Robertson's

6 £250 4S holiday vouchers

12 Everest Freezers
(14 cu. ft. capacity) packed with food

24 Portable B/W televisions

100 20-piece breakfast sets

1000 sets of 4 golden rose bushes
specially selected by Harry Wharcraft

Just about everyone's watched the "Golden Shot" – it's one of the most fascinating games on TV. In it, contestants have to hit a target with a bolt from a crossbow. To get their sights on their target, they give directions to an "aimer" – "Up-stop-left-left-stop-down-stop-left" and so on. It's great fun – and now Robertson's have adapted the game for you to play – for these really big value prizes.

HERE'S HOW YOU PLAY
Choose Your Target Orange
First, it's up to you to decide which prize you want to aim for: the more valuable the prize, the more Robertson's Marmalade labels you need. So, going for the gold Capri means you'll need six Robertson's Marmalade labels – but if the rose bushes are more to your fancy, you'll only need one label. You'll find full details of how many labels you'll need for each prize below. But please remember that however many you need, at least one of them must be from a Robertson's Golden Shred jar.

Prize
Gold Ford 1600XL Capri
£250 4S holiday voucher
Everest freezer (14 cu. ft.) with food
Portable B/W television
20-piece breakfast set
Set of 4 golden rose bushes

Target Labels
Orange 1 6
Gold 2 5
Silver 3 4
Bronze 4 3
Copper 5 2
Black 6 1

Find Your Target Orange
Decide which target orange to aim for and find it on the drawing of the Golden Shred label below.
The instructions you give the aimer to hit your target orange are:
"Up-stop-left-left-stop-down-stop-left-stop-up-stop-left-left-stop-down-stop-left-stop-down-stop-right-right-stop-First!"
You've hit your target orange!

Find Your Starting Square
Now simply work in reverse to find the square the aimer started from. Each move represents one square only and the instructions are the same for all the target oranges. Having found the starting square, mark it down in the space provided on the entry form and then answer the questions listed below.
Finally, at the end of the entry form, please complete in not more than 12 words what you think the golden rule is for all shoppers to observe that would best please housewives.

ENTRY FORM

A I have selected target orange number (lower target number in this box – you may choose only one target).
I have enclosed the correct number of labels – at least one of which is from Golden Shred. (fill in)

B The aimer started from square (enter square code e.g. A4 in these boxes).

About Our Listings File

NEW This is the first time that the listing has appeared in Compers News, so we give detailed information about the competition and how to enter.

ONGOING This listing has previously appeared in Compers News, so in some cases only brief information may be included to remind you that the competition is still out there and to carry on entering.

++ The closing date shown is the final one for the competition, but there are earlier closing dates during the promotion too – for example, multiple draws and/or a final 'mop-up' draw for late entries after the main prizes have been awarded. So always check to make sure you don't miss out on the earlier draws and prizes.

Costs: For phone and text entries, the amount shown in brackets is a guide to the total cost of entering each comp. For PHONE comps, your Network Access Charge (NAC) will typically be up to 10p per minute from a landline and up to 45p per minute from a mobile, depending on your network and tariff. Unless we tell you otherwise, your call will usually last around one minute. For TEXT comps, your Standard Text Rate (STR) will typically be around 10-12p depending on your network and tariff; note that these texts are unlikely to be included in monthly plans or free text bundles so you should always expect to be charged when entering a text competition.

Quick & Easy Prize Draws

A quick postcard or plain paper entry is all that's needed for everything in this section – there's nothing else to buy or do! Where other entry methods are available (e.g. phone, text or online) we list these too, so just enter in the way that's easiest for you.

Purchased Needed New This Month

You need to buy something to enter the comps in this section – just follow our instructions. If a free 'No Purchase Necessary' (NPN) option is offered, we'll give you all the details. Northern Ireland readers should check the T&Cs of any comps in this category that they wish to enter, as legal differences mean that NI-only entry restrictions and/or free entry instructions can sometimes apply.

IMPORTANT! Promoters are entitled to ask for proof of purchase for any comp listed in this section. We therefore strongly recommend that you keep your original codes, packaging, till receipts etc. safe as they may be needed to claim a prize.

Purchase Needed Ongoing

This is your at-a-glance digest of every ongoing 'Purchase Needed' comp that's previously featured in Compers News. Don't forget to carry on entering!

What The Symbols On These Pages Mean

PD This comp is a PRIZE DRAW.

IW This comp is an INSTANT WIN.

If both symbols are listed for the same competition, this indicates that prizes are awarded via both methods.

+++ This symbol means that the date given is the FINAL closing date for the competition, but there are earlier closing dates during the promotion too. There could, for example, be multiple draws (e.g. daily or monthly), or the promo period might include a final 'mop-up' draw for late entries after the main prizes have been awarded. When you see this symbol, check the comp details carefully to ensure you don't miss out on the earlier draws and prizes!

Long-Running Listings

Special packs, entry forms etc. – where needed – may now be difficult to find for some of the older listings on these pages. Get into the habit of picking up everything you need for a comp as soon as you can, even if you don't intend entering straight away!

Please also note that some of our older listings may now have entered their final 'mop-up' phase, and in these cases the Top Prizes shown might no longer be available to win. Where applicable, please refer to individual comp T&Cs for detailed summaries of ongoing prize availability and closing dates – or check out the original Compers News listing by using the online library and Search facility at www.compersnews.com/digital.

Bits 'N' Pieces

This is where you'll find anything that doesn't fit into any of the above categories... a veritable pot-pourri of prizes!

NEW £1 charity scratchcards in aid of Sport Relief are available at Sainsbury's kiosks and Customer Service desks until 20th March 2016 or until all 1,000,000 cards have been sold – so you might still be able to find them on sale at some stores if you're quick. Every card is a winner, including lots of Persil money-off vouchers and the following major prizes: 4 x Sony Bravia Smart Ultra HD TVs, 8 x £500 Thomas Cook holiday vouchers, 15 x iPad Minis, 50 x TRESemmé haircare hampers and 100 x £25 Sainsbury's gift vouchers. The best bit for us compers is that these major prizes MUST be won, and you can send in your lower-value money-off prize scratchcards to the address given to go into a draw for all unclaimed prizes instead. Prize draw closes 1st May 2016.

NEW Vote for your favourites in the Great British Food Awards 2016 and you'll go into a draw to win lots of foodie prizes, worth over £5,000 in total. Enter online at www.greatbritishfoodmagazine.com/awards or by completing the entry form inside the April 2016 issue of Great British Food magazine. One entry per person, closing date is 7th July 2016.

NEW Back in our October issue, we explained how some monthly magazines are actually published every four weeks, meaning that they appear every 28 days rather than every 30 or 31 days. This, in turn, means that competitions in those magazines often close progressively earlier each month too, and sometimes we have to juggle the comps between our main monthly magazine and our mid-monthly Compers Update bulletin to keep up with the ebb and flow of closing dates. This has happened this month with two of our usual Compers Update regulars, so rather than let the information go to waste here it all is in its usual Compers Update format. As magazine publication dates – and closing dates – become increasingly flexible, why not subscribe to both Compers News AND Compers Update to give yourself full coverage across the entire month and to make sure you can continue to enter your favourite magazine competitions, wherever in the month their closing dates might fall? If you're not currently a Compers Update subscriber, you can add it to your main Compers News subscription by visiting www.compersnews.com/shop or by calling 01795 592 835. First up then, Chat Crosswords magazine has various prizes on offer including 1 x £2,500 Love2shop holiday gift card, 1 x £1,000 cash, 1 x Acer Aspire Switch laptop, 10 x Martha Hill Essential Skincare sets, 14 x Stabilo Festival Spirit pen sets, 22 x Bach Rescue Remedy bundles, 29 x £50 Love2shop gift vouchers and 30 x The Sunshine Boys DVDs. To enter for all of these prizes in a single phone call, make a note of the page numbers and answers 'PAGE 35 CRETE, PAGE 51 COMEDY, PAGE 45 RELAX, PAGE 5 POINT, PAGE 15 TABLET, PAGE 9 VALUE, PAGE 25 NOURISH, PAGE 57 PICTURE' and then phone 0906 250 1306 (50p/min + NAC, 1.5 mins). You can also enter online at www.puzzler.com/competitions (select Chat Crosswords issue 241 and fill in your answers on the online entry form in the same order as above, omitting the page numbers). Closing date is 6th April 2016.

NEW And Take a Puzzle magazine has a selection of prizes up for grabs including 1 x one-week holiday for 2 to Genoa worth £3,000, 1 x three-night trip for 2 to Galway worth £1,200, 1 x £1,000 cash, 9 x £63 cash, 10 x Philips GoGear Vibe MP4 players, 10 x £50 Argos vouchers, 12 x Bannatyne's Health Club Manicure Spa Days for 2, 19 x chocolate hampers, 21 x HoMedics Facial Cleanse and Perfect Cleaning Brushes, and 25 x mystery cash prizes worth between £10 and £250. To enter for all of these prizes in a single phone call or text, make a note of the answers 'LADY GAGA, 2, GUINEA, REVIVE, SHUFFLE, WERE CLASSMATES, SMOOTH, PLATINUM, TASTY, NIGELLA LAWSON' and then phone 0901 130 0201 (50p + NAC), keying in issue number 3 when requested. You can also enter by texting TAP3 followed by a space and then your full name, house number, postcode and answers to 87080 (50p + SR), or online at www.puzzlemagazines.co.uk/competitions (fill in your answers on the online entry form in the same order as above). Closing date is 7th April 2016.

NEW Place an order at www.ocado.com for delivery between 30th January and 14th April 2016 inclusive, enter the voucher code VOU5647619 at the checkout, and you'll go into a draw to win one of 5 x JML Nutri Blitzer blenders. See www.ocado.com/webshop/getStaticContent.do?siteId=74835 for more details.

NEW Or to go into the draw for a NutriBullet blender, visit www.careway.co.uk/nutribullet and sign up for the Careway Pharmacy newsletter by entering your email address in the box at the top left-hand corner of the page. One entry per person, closing date is 6th April 2016.

NEW Kettle Chips are giving away 5 x Champagne Afternoon Tea for Two at The Ritz experience vouchers, in a prize draw running exclusively at Waitrose stores. To enter the draw email your full name and address to: winwithkettle@kettlefoods.co.uk. One entry per person, closing date is 10th April 2016.

NEW Buy selected Continental tyres from a participating stockist, and you could claim a retro football shirt and go into a draw to win UEFA Euro 2016 ticket prizes. The exact terms of the offer, prizes available and closing dates vary by stockist, so if you're interested in this one we suggest that you visit www.contipromoterm.co.uk and use the drop-down menu to see a list of participating stockists and their respective T&Cs. You might need to shop around to find tickets for the match you prefer! Full details of the promotion are at www.continental-retroshirts.com and the earliest closing date we can see is 31st March 2016 – so check out the website now if you want to give this one a go.

NEW When it comes to competitions linked to any kind of financial product or service, please remember that it's important to take suitable advice before committing to any investment. Bearing that in mind, if you invest a lump sum in a Fidelity ISA online at www.fidelity.co.uk/draw between 25th January and 31st March 2016 inclusive you could win your investment back. That could mean a cash prize of up to £15,240 based on this year's ISA allowance, and there are five prizes to be won. Please read the T&Cs carefully to make sure you understand everything before deciding whether to enter this one. One entry per person, closing date is 31st March 2016.

NEW And still on a financial theme, Whitechurch Securities are giving you the chance to win a luxury Abercrombie & Kent holiday up to the value of £5,000 when you invest in one or more of their investment portfolios before 31st March 2016. Once again, we must remind you that this kind of investment is not suitable for everyone so please read the small print carefully and take advice as necessary. Full details of the draw are at <http://tinyurl.com/CNWhitechurch> - but here's the best bit, buried in the T&Cs: No purchase is necessary. You can enter the prize draw by sending a self-addressed envelope to: Holiday Prize Draw, Whitechurch Securities Ltd, The Old Chapel, 14 Fairview Drive, Bristol BS6 6PH. One entry per person, closing date is 31st March 2016.

NEW You can help save whales and dolphins, and go into a draw to win a £20 Waterstones gift voucher, by recycling ink cartridges using the special Freepost label at <http://uk.whales.org/recycle-and-win>. Closing date is 5th April 2016.

NEW Love It! magazine is giving away 5 x family passes to Drayton Manor Theme Park. To enter the draw email your name, address and daytime phone number to: competitions@loveitmagazine.co.uk – putting 'DRAYTON MAR 17' in the subject line. Closing date is 31st March 2016.

NEW If you bought a copy of Ultimate Dot2Dot magazine following the details in last month's Bits 'n' Pieces here, as promised, is the answer you need. Look away now if you're still trying to complete the puzzles yourself! Our advice is: Elvis Presley (Design 6). One entry per person, closing date is 30th June 2016.

Beat The Ed – Find A New Competition And Win Yourself A Prize!

Your editor has been a genuine comp for 40 years, and prides himself on going out most days looking for new comps. But he can't be everywhere – and this is where you come in! Chances are you live in a different area, shop at different stores, buy different products or read different newspapers and magazines... so can you find a brand new comp first and BEAT THE ED?

Any comp that we can use in Compers News or Compers Update qualifies – including any on-pack or in-store promotion, any entry form or leaflet, any magazine or booklet... and even major web comps too! Simply send us an original or clear photocopy of all the actual comp material – including the small print. And if you are sending us something from a magazine where the answers and/or T&Cs appear on different pages, please make sure that you send us everything.

Post entries to: BEAT THE ED, Compers News, PO Box 8763, Nottingham NG2 9BS, or scan and email to: editor@compersnews.com – putting 'BEAT THE ED' in the subject line. Please enlarge any particularly tiny small-print before sending.

Every time you send us a comp we haven't seen before and that can be included in Compers News or Compers Update, you'll get an entry into our monthly draw. The more times you BEAT THE ED, the more entries you get – so if in doubt, send it in!

At the end of every month we'll draw out THREE lucky winners who'll each receive 24 second-class stamps. So, go on... rise to the challenge and try to BEAT THE ED.

Your Chatterbox Access Code is: WINNER16

Sometimes you might be asked for this as an additional security / anti-spam measure and it needs to be entered in BLOCK CAPITALS with no spaces.

Chatterbox is designed to be an interactive message board, so we do ask for a minimum level of participation. Full details of our message board's User Policy, Terms & Conditions and a selection of other useful user information can be found on the forums at bit.ly/chatterboxrules once your registration has been approved, and we recommend that you take some time to read this as soon as possible after joining. We look forward to seeing you!

Competition Listings Small Print

- We pride ourselves on our accuracy here at Compers News, and all of the information in this newsletter is researched and checked thoroughly. But we cannot take responsibility for any errors, omissions, or changes made by a Promoter after we've gone to press. We recommend that, where possible, you check original literature, websites, entry forms etc. for the full details and up-to-date terms and conditions of any competition that you wish to enter.
- All web links in this magazine are tested at the last possible moment prior to publication to ensure that they are still current at the time of going to press. But we cannot be held responsible for web pages subsequently moving or disappearing prior to a published closing date. If a link no longer works, try finding the competition via a site's main Home page, or by using any 'Site Map' or 'Search' facilities on the site. If this fails, you should contact the site owner direct.
- Unless otherwise stated, you should assume that competitions listed in Compers News are only open to mainland UK residents aged 18 or over. Due to legal and geographical variations, a competition may run differently in Northern Ireland, Eire, CI and IoM – and sometimes may not be available at all. If you live in these areas, we strongly recommend that you obtain and check the full rules of a promotion before entering.
- We try our best to cover the widest possible range of promotions in Compers News every month. For this reason, we may not feature every competition from a particular issue of a magazine, or every possible entry route for an individual competition. You should consult the original magazine and/or promotional literature if you require definitive information.

Pick of the Month!

Take Flight With The Angry Birds

Pick up a promotional Peperami pack and you could win one of two Angry Birds-themed holidays to Barcelona.

And what exactly IS an Angry Birds-themed holiday, we hear you ask? Well, one of the holidays is for a family staying in a luxury tree house and includes an Adventure Forest stunt course featuring rope swings and ladders, nets, suspended bridges, aerial walkways and zip wires (gulp!), and the other is for two adults and includes a 30-minute stunt-filled flyboarding experience where you're fired high up into the air like an Angry Bird on a water jet powered board (even bigger gulp!).

For those of you who fancy a quieter life, there are also 2,000 The Angry Birds Movie branded goodies to be won instantly, including keyrings, puzzles, scarves and drawstring bags.

Enter the competition online at www.peperami-angrybirds.com before the closing date of 30th June 2016.
